

Dear friends,

As Easter approaches, I encourage you to go deeper with your spiritual practices. Pick up your Bible daily, sing a little louder during worship, pray for a friend (better yet, pray for an enemy), breathe in gratitude, breathe out love and compassion, serve a neighbor. Lent is the perfect time to be more intentional in how we spend time with our God. This mindful living helps us recognize and be grateful for God's bountiful gifts of grace, love and salvation.

Hope to see you at an Easter service or at one of our Encore programs. May God bless your Easter season and may you be a blessing to others.

Grace and peace,
Lauri Warner

Anna Quindlen presents NANAVILLE: Adventures in Grandparenting

Friday, April 26 | Wesley Hall | 7:00 PM – 8:30 PM

A novelist and journalist whose work has appeared on fiction, nonfiction, and self-help bestseller lists, Anna Quindlen has produced another winner in NANAVILLE. She reflects on the different maternal roles women play throughout their lives and explores the joys and revelations of being a first-time grandmother ... no longer being the mother and decision-maker, but instead a secondary character in support of her son and especially her daughter-in-law, who is beginning her own motherhood journey. Packed with her signature wisdom, humor and wit, this is Anna at her best: on family, female relationships, and being a parent, sister, friend, and mother-in-law. This is a ticketed event. Each ticket includes a copy of NANAVILLE, which Anna Quindlen will sign for those who attend after her conversation with our moderator, Rena Pederson.

Advance purchase is encouraged – Register here.
