2013-2014 TOWERARTS SERIES

Celebrating the creative Spirit in its tenth season, the TowerArts Series opens the first of seven concerts with the thrilling organ-duo of Ken Cowan and Bradley Hunter Welch! The Chancel Choir then presents music from the cities it will visit on its 2014 Mission Tour: the jubilant Te Deums by Haydn and Dvořák and the gripping Missa Brevis by Kodály. November brings back the famed Dallas Wind Symphony in combination with the mighty Dobson pipe organ to raise the roof in a sonic spectacular. All of HPUMC's choirs combine in Christmas favorites at the Festival of Carols. Exciting and innovative composer Mark Miller will lead the Youth and Chancel Choirs in a February Hymn Festival of his own music, and the One O'Clock Lab Band will amaze with the flavor of jazz in March. We close the season with the music that members of our Chancel Choir will take to Europe to spread Christ's message of love and light to those who have forgotten or may never have known it. Invite a friend, and engage with us as we celebrate God's gifts of beauty in sight, sound, and Spirit!

—Dr. Bradley Hunter Welch, Director of Music & Arts / Organist

Support TowerArts

Become a member of the TowerArts Society

Members of the TowerArts Society are a vital part of this ministry enabling the series to provide a wide variety of cultural events for our church and community. Membership includes invitations to special receptions and preferred seating at TowerArts events.

Those persons joining the TowerArts Society at the Tracery, Parapet, Spire, and Pinnacle levels will be invited to a special private event with composer Mark Miller and will receive complimentary tickets to the Chancel Choir European Tour Send-Off Concert.

DUO-ORGANISTS KEN COWAN & BRADLEY H. WELCH

SEPTEMBER 15, 2013

The first two recitalists who inaugurated HPUMC's Dobson Organ combine their gifts for an unforgettable evening of virtuosity—four hands and four feet at one console.

WE PRAISE YOU, O GOD!

OCTOBER 13, 2013

HPUMC Chancel Choir and Professional Orchestra present music from the three European cities the choir will visit on its 2014 Musical Mission Trip: Vienna, Prague, and Budapest. Music of Haydn, Dvořák, and Kodály will cause your spirit to soar in praise.

DALLAS WIND SYMPHONY & ORGAN

NOVEMBER 10, 2013

Returning to the TowerArts Series by popular demand, the finest wind ensemble in the country combines with the color and power of the Dobson organ in a concert that promises to be a fun and thrilling sonic spectacular.

FESTIVAL OF CAROLS

DECEMBER 8, 2013

All of HPUMC's choirs—NewSong Children's, Youth, Chancel, and Epworth Handbells—again combine to present your Christmas favorites accompanied by brass and organ.

HYMN FESTIVAL WITH MARK MILLER

FEBRUARY 23, 2014

One of the most rousing young United Methodist composers and worship leaders in demand today, Mark Miller will engage everyone to worship as he leads HPUMC's Youth and Chancel Choirs in a stirring hymn festival.

ONE O'CLOCK LAB BAND

MARCH 23, 2014

WESLEY HALL
NO CARILLON RECITAL

Bringing the flavor of jazz to our series, the world-renowned One O'Clock Lab Band from the University of North Texas returns to inspire with their astonishing versatility, inventiveness, and impeccably cool sound.
